

Meeting Venue

The Seminar will be held at the Portuguese Military Academy, located in Amadora, near Lisbon.

The Military Academy is a Military University that provides Education and Training to the Army and National Guard future Officers. It also develops Research and Development activities as well as community support.

Although the founding act of the current Military Academy reports back to the Army School (1837), we can trace its origins back to the year of 1640.

Currently, the Military Academy owns the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE).
